

LOVE-YOUR-LIFE...

your feminine spirit

Some words have been tainted. We've forgotten who we are, and our worth, because of it. The feminine is strong, powerful, and beautiful--and so are we when we stand firmly aware in our strengths.

When I say the feminine, I don't mean gender. I mean the feminine principle that is living—or suppressed—in both men and women. The feminine principle attempts to relate. Instead of breaking things off into parts, it says, Where are we alike? How can we connect? Where is the love? Can you listen to me? Can you really hear what I am saying? Can you see me? Do you care whether you see me or not? – Marion Woodman

There's much more. Inspiring stuff. This class will illuminate the many facets of your wonderful feminine spirit - to empower and awaken your sense of purpose, worth, value, and self-esteem.

If you've ever felt bad about being a woman, or not good enough, that that there was something wrong with you, that you didn't fit, you need this class. Because you'll find out why ... and how to fix it... and you'll feel GOOD!

This class will renew the spirit of women and girls. You will come to value what is feminine—and divine—about yourself, and live it proudly, to honor all you are and the power you have, and your work in the world, to be empowered and inspired and awakened, to rediscover your true essence and love your life.
