

What is your 'harvest' of 2017?

In nature-based traditions, we are entering a sacred time of year. All hallows eve, October 31, is the end of a year and November begins a new one...all saints and all souls days in growing-up-catholic tradition. 'Harvest' implies abundance and what we do with it.

Share your thoughts, writings, readings, wisdom 'harvest' of 2017...

Holding sacred space to witness, appreciate, and bless this harvest season and one another.

“The harvest ... in a spiritual sense, ... [asks] how well the Self has weathered the challenges of maturation.” (The Women’s Wheel of Life)